EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

KEEPING THE FAITH: Bad times may come into our lives in one form or another. Sita wailed and said destiny came to her in the form of a deer. Despite Lakshmana cautioning Sita, she did not pay heed and traduced him with derogatory remarks. Manas, Chittham and Buddhi are relative terms. If people are drawn to worldly things, it is called Chittham. Suppose we are in a state of wavering; it is known as Manas. A controlled and steady position is named Buddhi. Praying to God will make our minds steadfast and unwavering. Lord Krishna says in the Bhagavad Gita that He grants a "clean mind" to those who worship Him.

Sita says on our behalf that people may go berserk and lose their mental stability in times of adversity. We must be patient, exercise restraint, and be cautious during testing times. When the auspicious time arrives, it will automatically prompt our minds to think of noble things.

Sri Damodhara Dikshithar stated in a discourse that God reveals good or bad omens to those who have faith. It is a tradition for people to break coconuts in temples as a sign of good fortune. They pray that it should be correctly broken and should not be stale. For dire prognostications, if any, people may light lamps before God or pray to Goddess Durga.

Upon Hanuman's arrival, Sita experienced favourable omens at Ashokavana, indicating that good things would happen. Seeds dried up due to the wind and scorching sun would sprout with a spell of rain. Sita was all happy with the signs of good omens. Like the moon emerging from an eclipse with an incredible shine, Sita's dowdy face changed and glowed with all its brightness. —In The Hindu

Elephant goes to store in search of sweet treats

Bangkok: A wild elephant wandered out of a national park in Thailand to visit a grocery store, where the peckish pachyderm feasted on eggs and sweet treats.

The 27-year-old elephant, named Plai Biang Lek, is well known to locals for his frequent treks out of Khao Yai National Park in search of snacks.

Residents said he can often be seen walking past a corner store a little over half a mile from the park entrance gate, but on Monday he made what is believed to be his first visit to the store's interior.

The elephant feasted on eggs, dried bananas, a sandwich and nine bags of sweet rice crackers before park rangers arrived to usher him out of the business.

Members of the Khao Yai Elephant Lovers Group donated about $25 to the store to pay for Plai Biang Lek's snacks. The store's owner said he was not angry at the elephant, as the animal must have been hungry.

Pet yeast craze gaining traction in China

Beijing: A growing number of young Chinese looking for low-maintenance companionship are turning their attention to jars of activated yeast that only need flour and water. So-called static pets such as stones, mango pits, paper boxes, and even toothpaste have become very popular with Chinese youths looking for low-commitment companionship to compensate for their stressful daily lives and careers.

However, one such static pet has been seeing massive popularity in the Asian country, "pet yeast." Nicknamed "face worm" by netizens, the yeast can be "raised" in a simple container by feeding dry yeast with flour, water and a bit of sugar. After stirring, wait a few hours for the yeast grow into a sticky, bubbling mass that emits a wine-like aroma. Apparently, this is enough for young people looking for easy companionship.

Terrible pothole-filled roads: Is MCC in deep slumber?

Sir,

This is to bring to the notice of the officials of the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) and other civic authorities the deplorable condition of our city's roads, including many major thoroughfares.

As we all know, the monsoon has arrived early, bringing joy to farmers and others. However, the incessant rains, which have only just begun, are already exposing the poor state of our roads.

The asphalt on many roads, which was already weak and unstable, is deteriorating rapidly with the onset of rainfall.

I had written in this column multiple times last year about how the MCC, as a cost-cutting measure, undertook only superficial patchwork repairs. Those patches have now eroded, reopening the same potholes — proving that the previous effort was nothing more than an eyewash.

With the patched sections now washed away, the roads are more dangerous than ever, especially with more rain expected in the coming months.

This situation also highlights the extent of corruption embedded in the substandard contracts and tenders awarded by the MCC. How can a road repair last barely 6 to 7 months? Mysuru once prided itself on well-maintained roads, clean surroundings and citizen-friendly governance.

Sadly, the city now finds itself mired in controversy and corruption. The prolonged delay in holding elections to MCC wards has further contributed to this administrative failure.

I sincerely appeal to MCC authorities to at least act now. I urge them to inspect major roads around the Central Business District, including Hardinge Circle, Nazarbad Main Road, SP Office Circle and other key stretches and begin immediate restoration work so that tax-paying citizens can travel safely and comfortably.

Echo of Stampede at M. Chinnaswamy Stadium

City BJP workers stage stir; condemn suspension of Police Officers

Mysuru, June 7 (GA&BS)- City BJP workers staged a protest near Ramaswamy Circle in the city yesterday, condemning the decision of the State Government to suspend Police Officers including Bengaluru City Police Commissioner, for the stampede that claimed 11 lives at M. Chinnaswamy Stadium in Bengaluru recently, where lakhs of cricket fans had turned up for the victory celebration of Royal Challengers Bengaluru (RCB) in IPL-18 T-20 cricket tournament.

The protesters, led by Krishnaraja MLA T.S. Srivatsa and City BJP President L. Nagendra, demanded that Chief Minister Siddaramaiah be named as Accused-1, Deputy CM D.K. Shivakumar as Accused-2 and Home Minster Dr. G. Parameshwar as Accused-3 by booking a case against them. Besides, all the three should tender resignation for their posts respectively.

The protesters raised slogans calling the Congress-headed State Government as the most evil for claiming 11 innocent lives for its own mileage, lawlessness and Chief Minister Siddaramaiah being the most corrupt CM ever seen in the country.

MLA Srivatsa said, while the Government has held the Police Officers responsible for the stampede incident and has taken action against them by suspending them, there is no such action yet against Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) — now Mysuru Development Authority (MDA) — officers in the site irregularities case.

CM Siddaramaiah has been misusing officers as per his whims and deserting them after getting publicity, which is incondonable, said Srivatsa.

Who gave permission for holding the felicitation programme for RCB team in front of Vidhana Soudha? Was it correct to hold two programmes on the same day? Asked Srivatsa, who mocked Dy.CM D.K. Shivakumar for holding RCB flag, as a publicity stunt. CM and Dy.CM are directly responsible for the death of 11 people in the stampede, but have made the Police Officers scapegoats to hide their mistakes, he charged.

City BJP President L. Nagendra said, the RCB cricketers were invited to Vidhana Soudha only for a photo op with the family members of the Chief Minister, Dy.CM and Ministers including their children, grandchildren, along with the IPL Trophy. But the 11 innocents had to pay with their lives for the cheap publicity gimmick of the political leaders.

State BJP OBC Morcha President R. Raghu, State BJP Minority Morcha President Dr. Anil Thomas, former Chairman of Karnataka Exhibition Authority (KEA) Mirle Srinivas Gowda, former Mayor Shivakumar, former Deputy Mayor V. Shylendra, City BJP General Secretaries Cable Mahesh and Giridhar, former Corporator B.V. Manjunath, former Zilla Panchayat Member Mangala Somashekar, Nishant, Lohit, Paduvarahalli Ramakrishna, Kiran Gowda, Gokul Govardhan and other leaders were present.

Chief Minister sacks Govindaraju as Political Secretary

Hemanth Nimbalkar removed as ADGP (Intelligence)

K. Govindaraju

Nimbalkar

Bengaluru, June 7 (VNS)- With the Congress-led State Government facing severe public outrage and criticism from the opposition parties over the stampede incident in front of Chinnaswamy Stadium, that caused 11 deaths and left several injured, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah on Friday sacked MLC K. Govindaraju as his Political Secretary.

According to sources, Govindaraju conceived the idea of a victory parade at Vidhana Soudha and also co-ordinated between the State Government, Karnataka State Cricket Association (KSCA) and Royal Challengers Bengaluru (RCB) despite Bengaluru Police denying permission for the event.

It is also said that many of the Ministers had raised issue during the Cabinet meeting following which the decision was made to remove Govindaraju as Chief Minister's Political Secretary.

Meanwhile, following the allegations of Intelligence failure, the State Government removed Hemanth Nimbalkar, who was holding concurrent charge as Additional Director General of Police (Intelligence) with immediate effect yesterday. However, he will continue to hold the post of Commissioner, Department of Information and Public Relations.

The State Government in his place appointed ADGP S. Ravi, who was serving as the Principal Secretary to the Government (PCAS).

IPS Reshuffle

The State Government has also made few other transfers including R. Hithendra, serving as ADGP (Law and Order) Bengaluru, who has been handed over concurrent charge of the post of ADGP (Traffic and Road Safety); S. Murugan, serving as ADGP (Communication, Logistics, and Modernization), Bengaluru, is also placed under the concurrent charge as ADGP (Recruitment) and K.V. Sharath Chandra, who was serving as ADGP (Recruitment), has been transferred as ADGP and Principal Secretary to Government (PCAS) and is also placed under the concurrent charge as ADGP and Managing Director, Karnataka State Police Housing and Infrastructure Development Corporation Limited, Bengaluru.

Head Constable stages solo protest outside Raj Bhavan

Bengaluru, June 7 (BS)- In an unusual development, a Police Head Constable staged a solo protest criticising the suspension of City Police Commissioner B. Dayanand and four other top Police Officers, in front of Raj Bhavan here yesterday.

Narasimharaju, a Head Constable attached to Madivala Police Station, staged a protest, by holding the portrait of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar and wearing a black band on his right arm, demanding that the suspension order of Police Officers must be withdrawn, to restore the morale of the Police force.

Acting swiftly, Vidhana Soudha Police took Narasimharaju into their custody.

It may be mentioned that, following the stampede incident that claimed 11 lives at the premises of M. Chinnaswamy stadium on June 4, the State Government had ordered suspension of five Police Officers including City Police Commissioner, Joint Police Commissioner, DCP, ACP and a Police Inspector, holding them responsible for the incident.

High Court grants interim relief to KSCA officials

Nikhil Sosale, others sent to Judicial Custody; One more FIR filed; Complaint against Virat Kohli

Bengaluru, June 7 (VNS)- In a major relief for top officials of the Karnataka State Cricket Association (KSCA), the Karnataka High Court on Friday granted interim protection from arrest to KSCA President Raghuram Bhat, Secretary A. Shankar and Treasurer E.S. Jairam, who are named in the Bengaluru stampede case that claimed 11 lives and left several others injured.

Justice S.R. Krishna Kumar, who took up the matter at 2.30 pm, passed the interim order while directing the trio to cooperate fully with the ongoing investigation.

The KSCA officials had approached the High Court seeking quashing of the FIR registered against them in connection with the tragic incident that occurred during the May 23 RCB event at M. Chinnaswamy Stadium.

State opposes protection

Opposing the relief, Advocate General Shashi Kiran Shetty, appearing for the State Government, insisted that investigations must continue unhindered.

He highlighted that the marketing head of Royal Challengers Bengaluru (RCB), Nikhil Sosale, had already been arrested at Kempegowda International Airport while allegedly attempting to flee the country. "He was on his way to Dubai," the Advocate General told the Court.

In response, the Counsel representing the KSCA officials said the arrests were being made based on political pressure, pointing out that Chief Minister Siddaramaiah himself had publicly announced that arrests would be made in the case.

After hearing both sides, Justice Krishna Kumar granted interim relief to the KSCA office-bearers.

No reprieve for Nikhil Sosale

However, the same relief was not extended to Nikhil Sosale, Head of Marketing and Revenue for RCB. His wife, Malavika Naik, had moved the High Court challenging his arrest, alleging that it was illegal, arbitrary and politically motivated, and that it violated his fundamental rights.

In her petition, she also accused Deputy Chief Minister D.K. Shivakumar of having a direct role in organising the Chinnaswamy Stadium celebrations that led to the stampede.

Senior Advocate Sandesh Chouta, appearing for Nikhil, argued that the arrest lacked substantial evidence and was made solely based on the Chief Minister's directions, without proper investigation.

Justice Krishna Kumar, however, declined to pass any order without hearing the State's response and adjourned the hearing to June 9, after the Advocate General sought time to file a reply.

Remanded to Judicial Custody

It may be recalled here that Nikhil Sosale was arrested by the Bengaluru City Police early on Friday, June 6, at the Bengaluru International Airport while attempting to board a flight to Mumbai.

Along with him, three other employees of DNA Entertainment Private Limited — Sunil Mathew (Vice-President, Business Affairs), Sumanth (Ticketing Operations Lead) and Kiran (Senior Event Manager) — were also arrested following FIR registered at Cubbon Park Police Station.

All four were produced before the 14th Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate (ACMM) Court, and the Court remanded them to 14 days of Judicial Custody.

Fresh FIR filed

Meanwhile, another FIR has been registered against KSCA, RCB and DNA Entertainment based on a complaint by Rolan Gomes, who identified himself as a survivor of the stampede.

In his complaint, Gomes held the three organisations responsible for the lapses that led to the deadly crowd surge.

Complaint against Virat Kohli

Adding to the controversy, activist H.M. Venkatesh has filed a complaint against RCB cricketer Virat Kohli at Cubbon Park Police Station, alleging his promotional role contributed to the stampede.

"IPL is no longer just a sport — it is gambling that has corrupted cricket," Venkatesh claimed in his complaint, adding, "Virat Kohli's influence and public call for fans to gather triggered the incident."

The Police have acknowledged receiving the complaint but are yet to file an FIR.

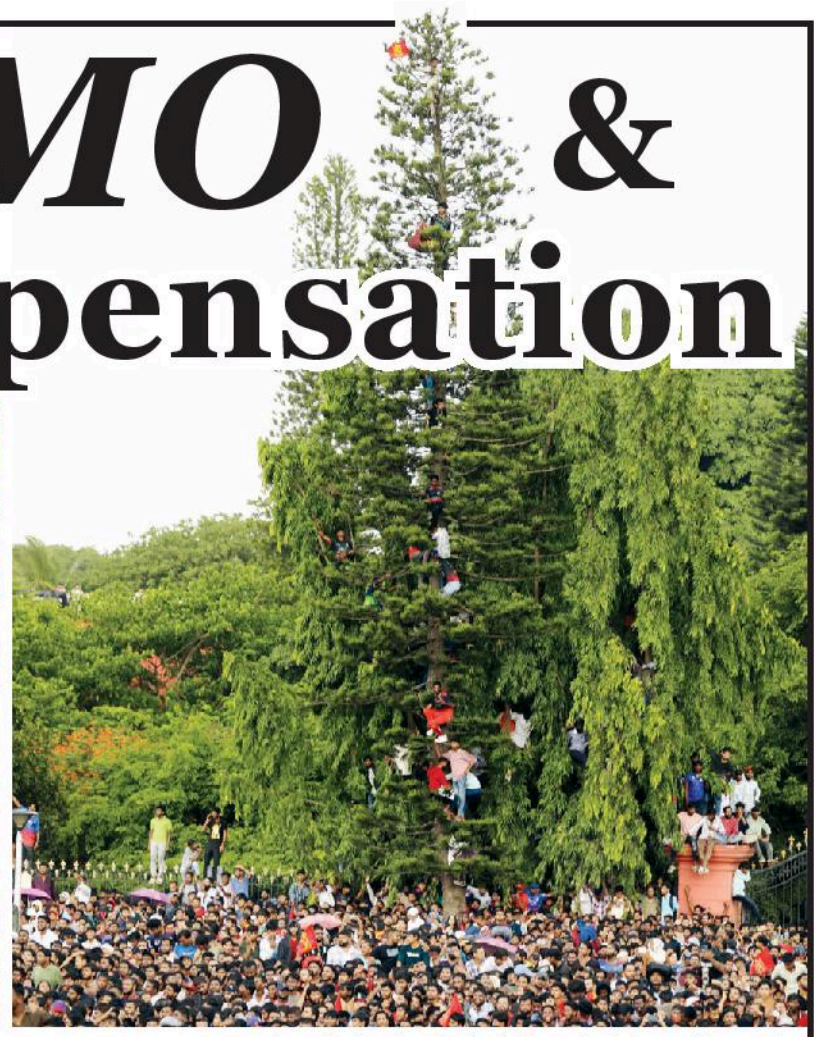
FOMO & Compensation



A victory celebration turned to tragedy. But when the state of our Police and the quality of our political leadership are tragic, we are bound to have tragedies.

It appears the reasons for the Bengaluru stampede were a collective failure of the Bengaluru Police, the politicians and the RCB marketing team.

The Police failed to act on the clearly growing crowd movement towards Chinnaswamy Stadium. The politicians ignored Police advice to postpone the event and the RCB team announced the victory parade without securing Police clearances.

But the real culprit behind this catastrophe is FOMO — the Fear Of Missing Out.

Once a harmless acronym, FOMO has now evolved into a full-blown cultural condition. It is no longer limited to party-hopping college kids. It's now a pan-generational virus infecting uncles, aunties, influencers, bureaucrats and even Cabinet Ministers. Everyone wants to be there. Everyone wants to be seen there.

We live in the age of existence through exhibition. If it didn't happen on Instagram, did it happen at all?

Recently, people rushed to watch the British band Coldplay perform, most didn't know a single song. But what mattered was that they got an Instagram reel showing "I was there."

Take the Kumbh Mela. Once the sacred pilgrimage of the devout, it has now become a viral pilgrimage for the digitally devout.

People claim they go for spiritual reasons but let's be honest, many are pseudo-spiritualists in search of selfies, not salvation.

Even our leaders are not immune. Why else would the Deputy Chief Minister rush to the airport to receive a cricket team that is, technically, just another business vertical of a liquor conglomerate?

Why was it necessary to felicitate the team on the steps of Vidhana Soudha? Because FOMO isn't limited to the public. Politicians too suffer from the Fear Of Missing Out on a photo-op.

> "A senior Police Officer, who advised postponement of RCB victory parade, has been suspended. If that's the standard, shouldn't the CM suspend himself? Or will he demand the resignation of his Deputy so he can continue to be the CM? We may be heading for a political stampede.
> The RCB tragedy is not just about crowd control or Police missteps. It's about a society that has made visibility the new virtue. A society where we don't feel alive unless we are seen. And in trying to be seen, we are risking everything, even our lives."

FOMO isn't just a psychological strain anymore, it's become a public safety hazard.

FOMO is what drew lakhs of people to RCB's parade. For many, it wasn't cricketing spirit...it was the desire for content.

When attention becomes currency, then there is bankruptcy of common sense. Common sense to sense danger and not go to a parade that is guaranteed to be chaotic.

Now comes the uncomfortable question: Should the tax-payer foot the compensation bill?

Of course, it is tragic that people died. But are we, the overburdened tax-payers, expected to endlessly bankroll other people's poor choices and the Government's repeated failures?

Every year, the Mysuru Police issue warnings during Mysuru Dasara not to climb onto old buildings to watch the procession. Yet, every year, people do. If they fall and die, who's to blame?

We live in a culture that casually disrespects safety. From jumping onto moving trains to driving on one-way streets. From not wearing helmets to hoisting toddlers through car sunroofs.

Yet when tragedy strikes, compensation is demanded, but not introspection.

This compensation culture has created a perverse incentive... people no longer demand accountability or justice, they demand payouts. The State is only too eager to use public money to purchase public silence. Wah!

Even worse, we reward irresponsibility while ignoring integrity. A man who dies in a stampede caused by his own negligence and the State's incompetence receives lakhs in compensation. A soldier killed defending the country? A mere salute!

It's time to draw a line. Compensation must not be a default setting. There must be clear criteria based on intent, responsibility and cause. We cannot continue to subsidise stupidity.

Let's also not ignore the political posturing that will inevitably follow. Will Chief Minister Siddharamaiah use this tragedy to delay vacating his seat for Deputy CM D.K. Shivakumar?

A senior Police Officer, who advised postponement of RCB victory parade, has been suspended. If that's the standard, shouldn't the CM suspend himself? Or will he demand the resignation of his Deputy so he can continue to be the CM? We may be heading for a political stampede.

The RCB tragedy is not just about crowd control or Police missteps. It's about a society that has made visibility the new virtue. A society where we don't feel alive unless we are seen. And in trying to be seen, we are risking everything, even our lives.

If this is the future of politics, of social behaviour and of public safety, then FOMO is not just a cultural trend. It is a public health emergency.

The solution isn't just better policing. It's better thinking. It's media literacy. It's a civic responsibility and a collective refusal to validate foolishness with compensation.

Top KSCA officials resign

KSCA Managing Committee emergency meeting today at 3 pm

Bengaluru, June 7 (VNS)- After coming under severe criticism, both by the public and by the members of Karnataka State Cricket Association (KSCA), two top officials of KSCA submitted their resignations to KSCA President K. Raghuram Bhat yesterday.

Both A. Shankar resigned from the post of KSCA Secretary and E. Jairam resigned as the Treasurer of the Association last evening, owing moral responsibility after the High Court granted them protection from arrest.

Following their resignation, the KSCA Managing Committee has called for an emergency meeting at 3 pm today.

A. Shankar E. Jairam

According to KSCA bylaw, the office-bearers' resignations should be placed before the Managing Committee before being accepted.

Meanwhile, sources also said that with the elections to the Managing Committee scheduled for October this year, there were chances of dissolving the current Committee and going in for an early election. However, the final decision is expected to be announced only after the meeting to be held this afternoon.

It may be noted that A. Shankar and E. Jairam have been missing ever since an FIR was filed against them at the Cubbon Park Police Station following the stampede incident.

Police teams also conducted raids at their residences in Malleswaram and Basavanagudi only to find them missing.

Following this, the duo, along with KSCA President Raghuram Bhat, had moved High Court yesterday seeking quashing of the FIR against them and was successful in getting protection from arrest by the High Court.

Jagannatha Centre for Art and Culture

New space for Mysuru's cultural activities

Website of multi-purpose cultural landmark jcacmysuru.com launched

Mysuru, June 7 (MK&BCT)- The website of Jagannatha Centre for Art and Culture (JCAC), a newly established multi-purpose cultural hub, was officially launched last evening at its premises in Vijayanagar 2nd Stage, Mysuru.

JCAC, envisioned as a vibrant space for artistic expression and cultural dialogue, aims to foster creativity, innovation and enrichment by bringing together performing artistes, artists and art enthusiasts under one roof.

Built on a one-acre land by Saraswathi Education and Cultural Trust, affiliated with Mangalore Ganesh Beedi Works and spearheaded by Dr. M. Jagannath Shenoy, JCAC is poised to become a key addition to Mysuru's cultural infrastructure.

The website was inaugurated by Dr. K.B. Ganapathy (KBG), Founder-Editor, Star of Mysore and Mysuru Mithra. JCAC's website will serve as a key access point for bookings of upcoming events and updates, marking a new chapter in Mysuru's cultural journey.

Limited cultural venues

Speaking at the launch, KBG said, "This is indeed a rare and much-needed centre for art and culture. Since 1970, I have had a deep connection with Mysuru and as a journalist, I have worked closely with artistes and writers, which only deepened my own interest in literature, music and culture."

He reflected on the limited cultural venues that existed in the past. "Back in the day, if someone wanted to attend a play, visit a museum or enjoy an art exhibition, the only venues available were the Jaganmohan Palace auditorium or the Town Hall. The contribution of industrialists to art and culture has been minimal compared to the generous patronage of the Wadiyars of Mysore," KBG noted.

He recalled the establishment of Karnataka Kalamandira during 1980-82, when R. Gundu Rao was the Chief Minister. "A few artistes and I met him to push for an auditorium, which led to its construction. Later, along with journalist Rajshekhar Koti and others, we tried to set up an art gallery, but the effort stalled after Koti's untimely demise."

"Now, noted industrialist and art patron Dr. Jagannath Shenoy has stepped in to fill that cultural void in Mysuru. His contribution is highly commendable," Dr. Ganapathy added.

Need for promotion

Dr. C.G. Narasimhan, Senior Surgeon and former President of Ganabharathi, praised the centre's versatility. "JCAC is not just for cultural events but is also well-suited for conferences and corporate gatherings. Mysuru owes a debt of gratitude to Dr. Jagannath Shenoy for creating such a valuable space. This centre deserves widespread promotion and active use by the artistic community," he said.

Rotarian and Entrepreneur Sam Cherian, Founder-Chairman of Schevaran Laboratories, also lauded the initiative, calling JCAC "a true gift to Mysuru." "With its attractive design and multi-functional facilities, JCAC is set to become a premier venue for national-level events and conventions. Dr. Shenoy's dedication to art is exemplary. He truly deserves to be recognised as a Mysuru Rathna," he said.

A space for culture and conversation

The architecture of Jagannatha Centre for Art and Culture draws inspiration from the Mysore Palace, following a disciplined, symmetrical layout anchored by a central open courtyard. Visible from multiple levels, this space becomes the heart of the complex, highlighting performances and encouraging interaction.

Open areas extend into the landscape, creating a natural microclimate and blending built form with nature, creating a seamless indoor-outdoor experience.

Spread over one acre, the centre houses three amphitheatres of varying sizes, a rooftop amphitheatre, a state-of-the-art auditorium with 350 seats, exhibition halls, art galleries and a public cafeteria.

The rooftop venue and open-air stages are specially designed to support traditional theatre forms like Bayalata and Yakshagana, which demand an unobstructed, expansive setting.

The galleries and exhibition spaces invite artists/artistes from across the world to showcase, connect and share their work. At the lowest level, the cafeteria serves as a communal space — open to all and ideal for lively discussions and cultural exchange.

Built for artistes, not for commerce

"Designed with modern architecture and multiple facilities, Jagannatha Centre for Art and Culture is poised to further artistic and cultural activities in our city. Artistes should make the most of this dedicated space. Dr. Jagannath Shenoy has not created this centre for commercial gain. It is a service to the world of art and culture. His vision stems from the belief that for art and culture to grow, support from art patrons is needed. Dr. Jagannath Shenoy is one such art patron of Mysuru city."

Mysuru's first multi-purpose cultural centre

"Mysuru has long been recognised as a cultural city, thanks to its deep-rooted contributions to art, literature and heritage. The city is home to over 15–20 active cultural organisations that regularly host art and literary programmes. However, despite these platforms, Mysuru lacked a comprehensive venue capable of hosting multiple events simultaneously under one roof. The Jagannatha Centre for Art and Culture was conceived to bridge that gap — to preserve, nurture and promote artistic and literary expression."

Cauvery Aarati, Amusement Park at KRS

Farmers up in arms; tempers flare at Minister's meeting

Mandya, June 7 (MR&BCT)- Farmers have vehemently opposed the State Government's proposed Cauvery Aarati and Amusement Park projects at the Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) Dam at Srirangapatna Taluk of Mandya district, warning that such initiatives could endanger the Dam's structural integrity and must not be allowed under any circumstances.

The protests came to the fore during a public consultation meeting held at the Cauvery Hall of Mandya Zilla Panchayat yesterday. Chaired by Mandya District In-Charge Minister N. Cheluvarayaswamy, the meeting saw heated exchanges between farmers, elected representatives and officials over the contentious project.

Tensions flared when Mandya MLA Ravi Kumar Ganiga dismissed the farmers' concerns, declaring, "Regardless of opposition, we will proceed with Cauvery Aarati." His remark triggered a sharp reaction from farmer leaders, resulting in a verbal confrontation that momentarily disrupted the meeting.

Meeting incomplete & rushed

Mandya Jilla Hitharakshana Samithi Secretary Sunanda Jayaram voiced procedural objections, saying, "We were informed about this meeting only last evening. This makes it incomplete, as it excludes representatives and officials from both Mysuru and Mandya districts."

She questioned the State's decision to allocate Rs. 92 crore for a ritual-centric project, asking, "Is it justified to spend such a huge amount on camphor-based rituals at KRS? If thousands gather for it, won't it cause water and air pollution, threatening the safety of Dam?"

She also revealed that legal proceedings have already been initiated to halt the project, asserting, "We will not allow Cauvery Aarati to take place at any cost."

A speaker at the event accused engineers, who once helped build the Dam, of now endangering it with such projects. He demanded that these concerns be formally communicated to the Government.

River pollution and priorities

Farmer leader Rajegowda said the proposed projects would pollute the Cauvery River further. Highlighting the existing contamination of the Hemavathi River from K.R. Pet's industrial and sewage discharge, he urged the Government to focus instead on conserving the river.

The flashpoint came when MLA Ganiga reiterated his support for the Cauvery Aarati, drawing an angry response from the farmers. Minister Cheluvarayaswamy was forced to step in, reminding all present that while legislators had the right to speak, they should not make inflammatory statements.

"Everyone has a right to free expression in a democracy," he said, assuring the gathering that their opinions would be conveyed to Deputy Chief Minister and Water Resources Minister D.K. Shivakumar.

MP's absence sparks row

The meeting also saw uproar when Manjunath, a member of the KRS Gram Panchayat, objected to the absence of local MP and Union Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy. He called it a breach of protocol, sparking protests.

Minister Cheluvarayaswamy responded, "No one instructed that the MP be excluded. In the past, MPs were invited but didn't attend."

MLAs Ramesh Babu Bandisiddegowda, Darshan Puttannaiah, MLC Dinesh Gooligowda, Mysugar Chairman C.D. Gangadhar, Deputy CM's Technical Advisor K. Jayaprakash, CNNL MD, DC Dr. Kumara, ZP CEO Nandini, Superintendent of Police Mallikarjun Baladandi and several officials were present.

Mining, blasting ban around KRS Dam

Seek IISc timeline for impact study on blasting: High Court

Bengaluru, June 7 (BCT)- The Karnataka High Court on Thursday directed the State Government to obtain written instructions from the Indian Institute of Science (IISc), Bengaluru, regarding the timeline required to complete a scientific study on the impact of blasting activities within a 20-km radius of the Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) Dam.

File photo

A Division Bench comprising Acting Chief Justice V.M. Kameshwar Rao and Justice C.M. Joshi passed the directive after the petitioners' counsel submitted that the study, mandated by a previous court order in January 2024, was still pending.

The Court was hearing a petition filed by C.G. Kumar of Pandavapura, who had approached the Court challenging an additional condition imposed by the Mandya Deputy Commissioner.

The condition required Kumar to await the outcome of a trial blasting report conducted by the Cauvery Neeravari Nigam Limited (CNNL) before converting his agricultural land for non-agricultural use and initiating quarrying operations.

Responding to the submission, the Government Counsel requested additional time to seek instructions. The Court orally observed, "You should get written instructions from IISc on how much time they need to complete the study." The Court then granted three weeks.

The High Court, on Jan. 9, 2024, had prohibited all forms of quarrying and mining activity within a 20-km radius of the KRS Dam until further orders. The Court had emphasised that the KRS Dam, constructed under the visionary leadership of Sir M. Visvesvaraya and the then Maharaja of Mysore, Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar, was not only an engineering marvel but also a structure of great heritage and historical significance.

The Bench had also recorded that the scientific assessment by IISc. may take six months or more. It permitted only those quarrying activities in the region that could be undertaken without the use of blasting, while rejecting any permissions for blasting-related work until the study is complete.
